Please consult this document for the complete reference list of Country garden, city garden: elementary school gardens in rural, urban and northern Manitoba by Suzanne M. Simpson

References

Archives of Manitoba, Arborg Collection. School Garden in Arborg, circa 1915. Item Number 1. Negative #9338.

Archives of Manitoba, Elkhorn - Schools - Indian Residential 2. circa 1915. Negative #3491.

Archives of Manitoba, Hartney Collection. School garden in Hartney, circa 1915. Item Number 22. Negative #27187.

Archives of Manitoba, W. J. Sisler Collection, Sisler 23.

Archives of Manitoba, W. J. Sisler Collection, School Garden 1913. Sisler 25.

Ava (2016). A student from Ms. Ava’s class compares a dandelion to paint swatch. [photograph]

Ava (2016). One student’s plan for the classroom garden box. [photograph]

Ava (2016). Starting plants from seed in the classroom. [photograph]

Ava (2016). Starting plants from seed in the classroom in an egg carton. [photograph]

Ava (2016). Students from Ms. Ava’s class using art to plan their garden box. [photograph]

Canadian War Museum, Start Your Victory Garden Today. CWM 19730004-014

DOI: 10.1080/03004430.2015.1029468

Lussier, P. (1986). Suzanne (right) and sister Claire atop a hay bale in a neighbouring farmer’s field. [photograph]

Lussier, P. (1987). Suzanne (second from left) with sister Claire, mother Laraine and father Paul in the pumpkin patch. [photograph]

Australian Primary Mathematics Classroom, 16(1), 25-32.

Michael (2016). A garden box in the fall. [photograph]

Rebecca. (2016). Free Little Library recently installed in the garden. [photograph]

