

Figure B1. Scree plot for components in principal components analysis. Only components with eigenvalues greater than one were retained for further analysis.

