INTERNATIONAL MOVEMENTS OF CAPITAL
AS AN AID TO WORLD ECONOMIC RECOVERY

The purpose of this work is to set forth the great importance of the role played by International movements of capital in the economic system of the world; to show what that role has been in the past, particularly its connection with the events which led to the world depression; and to discover whether a resumption of the international movement of capital is possible, and if so, whether it will be of aid in furthering world economic recovery.
