ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

The writer wishes to express his sincere appreciation for the help and guidance of his advisor, Dr. J. A. McLeod. Special thanks are also due Dr. Wm. Leach, Head of the Department of Botany.

Dr. Doris Lave kindly identified many of the plants mentioned in the work. The co-operation of Professor R. A. Wardle, Head of the Department of Zoology has also been very much appreciated.

Thanks are also due to Ducks Unlimited (Canada) for permission to use data collected at their expense, and to B. W. Cartwright, Chief Naturalist, for many helpful suggestions.
