

FIGURE 4-19. Ground penetrating radar profile and line drawing (below) of the Pelly Bar. Thick lines represent unit contacts. Note that signals east of about 1100 m along the profile are multiple reflections of surficial clay.